THE ANGLICAN CENTRE

Archdeacon for Mission Development

The Diocese of Athabasca offers an exciting opportunity for a mission-minded priest. We are seeking the right person to fill the position of Archdeacon for Mission Development. This is a new position with a focus on work with parish leadership in the formation of functional Christian community. The Archdeacon will identify resources present in the diocese and develop and implement strategies to release and share them. This person will also help identify areas of need and appropriate responses. We are seeking someone who is passionate in their commitment to Jesus and to His church, and has demonstrated gifts in teaching, discernment, enabling others in their ministries, and in mentorship. The successful applicant will have the ability to work well within a team environment, and possess strong interpersonal and communication skills. The position requires travel throughout the diocese, both with the bishop and independently.
